OBITUARY.

KINNEY.—In Damascus Tp., Henry county, O., Nov. 3d, 1886, Jacob Kinney, aged 83 years.

Mr. Kinney was one of the early settlers in this county. In company with the companion of his youth who still survive him, they entered the almost unbroken forest of Henry county, possessed of strong physical powers with a will to succeed, they were soon the owners of a pleasant home, in which he lived many long and happy years. W. R. Kinney, full possession of his home, dismissing the care of business and anxiety. He was the possessor of the comforts which religion yields. It was the privilege of the writer to frequently visit these aged ones in the years of their infirmity, and hear them speak of their confidence in Him who had said "I will never leave thee."

"Our Favorite Tea" is a special favorite with the ladies, because they can always depend upon its uniformity. Its grade never varies because it has been scientifically cured by the Perfection Process, and the last spoonful is as good as the first because it is imported by H. E. Cary, only in Perfection Tea Cans.

In celebrating its 50th anniversary last week the Findlay Courier was printed upon cream tinted paper. It gave a full history of the paper from its birth to the present time. At one time Alfred A. Hollabaugh, the founder of the Northwest, was the editor of the Courier. He died in Findlay on the 4th day of February, 1871.

The State Board of Health reports malaria as still prevailing; 17 deaths from Diphtheria, 24 cases with 8 deaths in Cincinnati during the week. The disease is abating in Springfield. Measles and scarlet fever still in Cincinnati. A decided increase in Typhoid fever; 17 cases of typho-malaria fever; acute lung diseases more prevalent. Several cases of scarlet fever in and near Napoleon.

The Scientific American, advertised in another column under the head of "Patents," certainly needs no one to "sing its praises," but, notwithstanding this fact, we feel it an absolute duty to the general public, at least that portion of it which has never seen or heard of the paper, to tell them that such a "one is published" at the low price of $3 a year, and that its true value cannot be over-estimated. It stands at the head of all publications of its kind.

The Peru (Ind.) Republican says that the Wabash employees now understand that each month they will receive their money on the 28th, or as near that date as possible. In thus giving its employees a fixed pay day, the company has done them a good turn, and one which they appreciate. It is no small help to men working for salaries, in making contracts for future performance, to be able to tell within a day or two the exact time they will receive the pay upon which they depend.

The girl who can put a good, square patch on a pair of pantaloons, may not be so accomplished as one who can embroider and work worsted dogs on blue ground, but she will be more useful at the head of a large family.

A nibbler is a man who enters a store, runs his fingers into every sugar barrel, then goes to the cheese and cuts off a slice, then as a matter of course, must have a few crackers, and perhaps before he makes up his mind to purchase a quarter's worth he has eaten up the profits on more than twice that amount. These characters are very annoying to business men.

On Saturday evening, between the hours of 6 and 7, Mr. Brib Hudson caught a runaway team in Napoleon, which had no driver and seemed to be tired out from running. He had the team put up at Van Hyning's and about 10 o'clock the owner made his appearance. The horses had broken loose at the residence of a man named Hull living near Okolona, where a husking bee was being held. They ran from there to Napoleon, a distance of ten miles, and strange to say broke nothing but a girl.

We still see a straw hat flitting around occasionally, like the last rose of summer. It is hard to get ready for winter, if there was but a month of it in the whole year. It is like getting ready to go to the bone-yard, where we all must eventually wind up. Even if we're ready, we are not willing. A man, however, who cannot get him a winter hat just yet may console himself with the reflection that one of the best precepts for health is to keep the head cool, the bowels open, and the feet warm.

"Tyro," our correspondent at Liberty Center, seems to have stirred up a regular hornets nest, if one should judge from the tone of the attack upon him by "Loyal Citizens" and others. We certainly don't wish any of our correspondents to go outside of truth and fact in making up their items for publication. And neither is it just that the editor to whom the items are sent should be held responsible for the views of his correspondents. If "Tyro" has been telling stories out of school, calling him bad names will not help the matter. Expose him at once. In the meantime we hope "Tyro" will continue sending us items.

Clothing.

Our sales never has been as large on any former season as they have been this fall; people have found the place to get good goods and at low prices.

Thanksgiving Dance.

All those who like to trip the light fantastic toe should remember the grand Thanksgiving dance at the Rink on the evening of the 25th. The entertainment will be given by the Napoleon Fire Department, for the benefit of the department. The boys are making all necessary arrangements for a good big time. Go and enjoy yourself.

New Butcher Shop.

Messrs. Kopp & Reddersen have opened up a meat market in the room recently occupied by Thos. Burns, and will carry a large supply of fresh and salt meats, bolognas, sausage, etc. These young men are certainly deserving of a liberal patronage in their new undertaking, and should have it. Give them a call.

Business Boom in Napoleon.

Our thriving little city is having quite a business boom. During the past week some of the business houses have had the best trade they have had for four years, and the prospects are that that trade will continue to grow. The business men of Napoleon have large and complete stocks of goods, which they are offering to the public at remarkably low figures. Our readers in remote parts of the county would do well by taking advantage of the Napoleon markets.

"Oh, My! What Clothing!"

This is the exclamation an old merchant of Napoleon made, who happened to step into Bernstein's one price clothing house one day last week, and he was justified in doing so, because he saw an immense stock of overcoats, suits for men, suits for boys, big and little, boys' and children's overcoats, piles of underwear for men and boys, pantaloons and overalls, hats and caps of all kinds. He said "he never saw such a stock of clothing in any store in this town; no wonder" he said "that you are doing the clothing business of the town, now I see the reason for it; I had no idea you carried such a stock, why, it looks like a wholesale house."

A Handsome Holiday Present.

As the holidays are now approaching we know of no article that will prove a more useful and acceptable present, than the "Wonderful Luburg Chair." Having over fifty changes, it can be adjusted to suit any position of the body, and being one of those wonderful contrivances it seems to please everybody.

It is designed for the parlor, library, or as part furnishing of any room, as a reclining, smoking or for invalids' use, lounge, bed or couch. Their prices are wonderfully low, about one-half what other makers ask.

Write for descriptive catalogue to the Luburg Manufacturing Co., 145 North Eighth St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Soldiers' Relief Commission.

Under a recent law providing for the same Judge Handy has appointed as the soldiers' relief commission the following persons: N. S. Cole to serve for 3 years; L. Boekelman, 2 years, and C. E. Reynolds, 1 year. This commission is required to meet at the County Auditor's office on or before the first Monday of December in each year, and there to fix the amount to be paid in each case. It is the duty of the personal property assessors in each township to make report to the County Auditor any indigent soldier or soldiers; the Township Trustees may also report cases. Probably some of the townships have not complied with the requirements of the act, and unless they do so before the commission meets, those entitled to relief under the law will not receive any benefit.

Shoot Them.

The farmers are warned against a new set of swindlers who have been operating in Lorain county and are headed this way. Their scheme is to exhibit to a farmer a patent-gate or other device, and lease from him a small piece of ground for the purpose of showing the apparatus to the neighboring farmers. The farmer signs his name to what he supposes is a lease, and the exhibitor goes away. In a day or two another man appears with a gate or such other device as may be used to conduct the swindle. The farmer signs he didn't order it, when he is shown an agreement, signed by himself to take the machine and pay cash for it. The scheme has proven successful in many instances. The best plan is to shoot or otherwise maim and disable the first stranger who asks you to sign your name to anything.
